

XM Radio is much more reliable than over air broadcast, and is important to me as a consumer. My local public radio stations only broadcast weather or traffic daily/maybe hourly in the morning. Having a dedicated weather and traffic station is VERY useful and provides better information access to the consumer.